My Daze

A REAL HONEST-TO-GOODNESS FAN LETTER...Glory be, Hip-Hip Hooray, and bless our longer winter underwear...We finally got a fan letter. Some poor soul in the wilds of York Springs took his (or her) pen in hand and scribed this unworthy column a real letter in ink and everything! I say "his-or her" because the writer neglected to tell us who they were. It was signed simply "Guess who?...Here is some of the "dirt" (and I Quote:) "Saw you (meaning me) chatting with Lucky the other day (Joel Griest)...Did you know he finally decided to cut his winter supply of wood...Better late than never...Fred Stough sporting a new convertible...Mrs. Glen Kemper observed her birthday Feb. 2...but she doesn't remember her classmate whose birthday falls in March???...Edgar Smith passed another milestone: His son Rodger, took time out last Sunday to help him celebrate it...(Ed. Note: I presume the unknown contributor means a birthday)...Am told it was Pete Griest who did the "decorating" on a certain car while the owners were inside the parsonage getting a knot tied...Said car belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Frey...Congrats kids! ...Wimpy (Clair) Shank hasn't been seen too often at the Rod and Gun Club since Christmas...If you were to listen to Byrant Bill Griffie today giving the history of cows you would never believe he made a 46 in a history exam, February, 1923, age 14!!"

Or letter writes closes with "Give my regards to Della Hershey and say hello to Baird Knaub...Thanks a lot whoever you are.

AROUND THE TOWN...Got a real celebrity up York Springs way. Harry Willis, the sign painter (and second-rate violinist) gained national recognition when his poster was awarded first prize in a contest held by Signs of The Times, a publication read by sign painters, and usually found in your local barber shop...I say "barber shop" because that's usually where you find all the odd magazines at least eight months old?...Zat right-Roy Cramer???? Made the horrible mistake of trying to get a bit to eat at the Coe-Z Nook restaurant at noon time...Seven thousand will high school kids trampled over me on their way to the counter to acquire a hog dog! As I crept between their kneeds in an effort to extricate myself from this miniature Korea, one large football player sloshed catsup all over my unprotected-missing the hamberger he was holding-completely! It was so crowded that twice I started to eat the boy's soup next to me before I realized that he was not ME! Three pretty gals were sitting in the corner busily engaged in giggling over the latest heart-throb, who had been sent to the counter to obtain food. He hasn't been seen since, and his mother is getting worried! I was lucky to escape with my very life, and vowed never again to recklessly venture into this wild place at noon time!

How Cum the only plumber in York Springs is on vacation?. Met Jack Coulson...He and Roy reesemble each other somewhat...He hasn't got Roy's supply of jokes, though...Made a mistake when I mentioned Baker's Ford...It's a 1911-not a 1915 as previously reported...he still needs windshield.

DILLSBURG...Anyone interested in participating in the Lions 1953 Minstrel Show, see Bill Shaw ....Can use some talent...Here's some more birthdayze for this week: Steve L. Young, Mrs. Ida Spath, Mrs. M.S. Hoffman, Karl Pretz, Albert Stotz, Merry Ann Klugh, Bruce Fleming, Mrs. George Seibert, Carolyn Gibney, Nadine Hunter, Chas. and Mrs. C.M. Fetzer, Ralph D. Slyder, and Dale Shellenberger ...Send 'em all cards-and Happy Birthday, kids! Bless ya all...Herb Harris, Febrary 11, 1953.

Faculty recital slated

On Sunday, February 11 at 3:00 p.m. the Messiah College Department of Music presents in faculty Recital. Soprano Lorie Bert and Flutist Bethann Arndt.

Dr. Bytof to provide free care to needy

Although most people know the importance of a good eye examination, many must forfeit this and other health care procedures to pay housing, heating and grocery bills.

To assist these people, Dr. Joseph W. Bytof, optometrist, is dedicating one day to provide free eye care for the needy of the Dillsburg area.

On Saturday, February 17, the doors of the 7 North Baltimore Street office will open at 9 a.m.

New Hope Ministries and area churches have been contacted to help notify those who have definite need for the services.

We hope to provide complete, thorough eye care for these patients," Dr. Bytof said. In addition to the routine examination, the doctor said he will provide additional tests to those who require them, free of cost. If someone needs corrective lenses, we'll provide them, too, he added.

Prospective patients should arrive early. They will be seen on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Doors will close at 2 p.m. or when examination slots are filled.

Field hockey participants honored

by John Middlekauff

At a recent banquet held to honor the young ladies who made up the various field hockey teams at Northern this year, the following were selected for individual awards.

Senior Jenny Prough was presented as the past season's Most Valuable Player. Julie Habowski, also a senior, was awarded as individual exhibiting the most sportsmanship.

Two underclassmen, Kim McBride and Dawn Knudsen were chosen as the Most Improved from this year's teams. These two young ladies, plus a host of returning letter-winners make next year's squad a very interesting group to follow during that season.

Also at this banquet, the Northern girls chosen for the Division III All-Star team were honored. Those chosen for this honor included Jenny Prough, Gretchen Klaus, Ursula Reed, Jaimie Rudisill, and Julie Habowski.

To the graduating seniors, we wish them all the very best in their feature endeavors, and as mentioned before to those returning-we look forward to following their successes next year.

"Taxbreak 90"

TAXBREAK '90 a two-hour television tax guide designed to help taxpayers prepare their taxes more easily and quickly, will air on Sunday, February 11 at 3:00 p.m. on WITF-TV33.

Hosted by veteran newsman Morton Dean, TAXBREAK '90 features tax experts in discussion groups and three special reports covering electronic filing, casualty and loss from natural disasters and free IRS assistance.

The program also features:

* Taxpayer profiles, which add insight to typical taxpayer questions and issues;
* A quiz show designed to provide facts to help prepare a return;
* Federal tax changes include the status of personal exemptions, earned income credits, and personal interest allowances;
* Quick, easy-to-understand tax tips; and
* A question and answer segment giving viewers an opportunity to have their questions answered by tax experts.

In describing the program, writer and producer Jim Seguin says, "There are tips that are helpful whether you're single or married; if you have children; if you are filing a 1040EZ form; or if you have a complicated return with many investments." Persons who would like to have tax questions answered during the program should call 1-800-424-1040.
